

Welcome to the Screaming Eagles Nest

The Nest is comprised of men, women and children who have made the leap from being just a spectator to being an active supporter of D.C. United at RFK stadium. Nest Dwellers unite together to stand, sing/cheer and participate in other visual activities throughout the entire game. If you are new, please use the song sheet below and follow the drumbeat and just jump in when new chants are started (if there is a lull, please feel free to start a chant).

To keep the Nest enjoyable for ALL, there are a few simple rules:

- the section is not general admission
- no tossing of any items (with the exception of streamers)
- no incendiary devices
- no fighting

Being a "12th Man" means you will lose your voice, your body will ache afterwards and you might miss some of the action while participating in a visual activity. However sharing the experience of a United victory with your fellow Screaming Eagles makes it all worth it!
